PERFECT TIME TO DO THOSE "I'LL GET TO IT LATER" TASKS WITHOUT LAST-MINUTE PRESSURE

For many businesses, summer brings a welcome pause after the spring deadlines and before the busy autumn period kicks back in. With fewer urgent pressures on the calendar, August-September can be an ideal time to step back, review, and get everything in order behind the scenes.

It's not just about compliance, it's about making sure your financial foundations are strong enough to support the months ahead. A quick check-in now could mean tighter bookkeeping, smoother payroll processes, or simply the peace of mind that everything is running as it should.

We often find that clients who use this quieter period to organise their accounts end up feeling far more prepared once the busier months roll around. It's the perfect chance to deal with those "I'll get to it later" tasks without the last-minute pressure.

So, if there's something you've been putting off, why not use these weeks to tackle it? Our team is here to support you every step of the way, ensuring you head into autumn with clarity and confidence.

Client Profile

IT TAKES TWO HILTONS TO TANGO

Hilton Cannon and Hilton Bodill are sister companies with decades of experience delivering trusted services across construction and electrical engineering. Together, they provide clients with end-to-end solutions, from new build projects and large-scale refurbishments to specialist electrical installations, maintenance, and facilities management.

Hilton Bodill focuses on construction, refurbishment, and interior fit-outs, working across sectors such as healthcare, education, commercial, and residential. Their expertise lies in creating high-quality, functional spaces that meet the evolving needs of clients while ensuring projects are delivered on time and with minimal disruption.

Hilton Cannon complements this with specialist electrical services, offering everything from distribution systems and lighting to fire safety, security, and ongoing maintenance. With a commitment to compliance, safety, and innovation, they deliver tailored solutions that keep facilities efficient, secure, and future-ready.

United by a client-first philosophy and decades of industry knowledge, Hilton Cannon and Hilton Bodill continue to build strong relationships and a reputation for reliability, quality, and service excellence.

News Update

Captain Kirk at Grantham

We're delighted to introduce Richard Kirk, who has recently stepped into the role of Head of our Grantham office. With decades of experience and a fresh perspective, Richard is looking forward to shaping the future of K2 in the region.

Richard, can you tell us a little about your professional journey?

I've been in the business world since 1982, with my expertise firmly rooted in accounts and audit. Over the years, I've worked with a wide range of clients, which has given me a solid grounding in both the technical and people-focused sides of the job.

What made you choose K2 as the next step in your career?

I was looking for a new challenge and wanted to be part of a business based in the East Midlands. K2 really appealed because of its reputation, its strong local presence, and the opportunity to be part of a growing and ambitious group.

Outside of work, what keeps you busy?

Sport has always played a big part in my life. I'm a former hockey player umpire at national league level and now I'm a National Assessor and coach with years of experience at the highest level of the sport in England, which keeps me active and involved in the sporting community. Beyond that, I really value my downtime with family...it's a great balance to the pace of work.
